Marketing & Social Media Launch Plan

PORT A LOCAL
PORT ARANSAS, TX

Trust-to-Transaction Social Launch

Launch Strategy: TRUST > HABIT > CONVERSION

- Build Trust: Establish Port A Local as the most trusted local guide to Port Aransas
- Introduce as a credible, local-first platform: build consistent traffic with valuable, repeatable content
- Create Habit
- Train Local users with buy-in earned in content and representation
- Train Visitor users to rely on the site for trip planning and discovery
- Covert traffic and drive conversions
- Promote services with clear calls to action

Audiences:

Local

- Local buy-in builds organic credibility
- Locals gravitate to a more-positive, island-centric voice with the credibility of history included
- Locals trust built with business listings and promotion without being sold on placement
- Locals drive conversions with maintenance requests and word-of-mouth for friend / family visitor booking

Visitors

- Visitors trust the local voice and vetting
- Visitors also gravitate to a more-positive, island-centric voice with the Local buy-in established
- Visitors trust Local recommendations without strings
- Visitors drive conversions and repeat as habit for future trips. In turn, creating organic visitor-to-visitor recommendations that drive earned conversions

Overarching Objective:

Build trust > Drive Site Usage > Conversions

FEEDER MARKET STRATEGY & PAID MEDIA PLAN

Placed ads should begin next week for end-of-school beach vacation planning

OVERVIEW

Drive high-intent traffic and conversions, focus on feeder markets and reach visitors actively planning their trips online

Strategy to reach users before they arrive, when they are making decisions about:

- Where to stay
- What to do
- What to book in advance

PRIMARY FEEDER MARKETS (Austin, SA, Houston, DFW)

What we know about the feeder markets:

- High weekend travel volume
- Strong short-term rental behavior / used to services provided online in the “real world” of vacations
- High likelihood to pre-book services (golf carts, activities)

TOP OF FEEDER FUNNEL (Awareness & Repeat Visitors)

Goal: Introduce Port A Local to new audiences and remind repeat visitors this is your Texas beach.

Targeting:

- Users in feeder markets
- Travel interest targeting
- Beach/vacation behavior

Content:

- “3 things to do in Port A”
- “Plan your Port A weekend”
- Hidden gems / local recommendations

CTA:

- Explore the site
- Start planning

MIDDLE OF FEEDER FUNNEL (Engagement)

Goal: Build trust and encourage site usage

Targeting:

- Video viewers
- Social engagers
- Website visitors

Content:

- “How to plan your trip”
- Local insights

CTA:

- Read more
- Save this
- Use Port A Local

BOTTOM OF FEEDER FUNNEL (Conversion)
Goal: Drive bookings and service requests

Golf Cart / Beach Rentals - the same basics from organic posts apply with paid with ramped execution. Paid content needs to feel like content and evoke those beach-lover emotions, and trust in Port A Local, not like ads.

Targeting:
- Website visitors
- Engaged users
- Travel planners

Messaging:
- "Reserve before you arrive"
- "Avoid sell-outs"
- "Save $20"

CTA:
- Reserve your cart
- Reserve your beach day

RETARGETING
Will want to implement for conversions after paid campaign placements begin.

We will retarget:
- Website visitors
- Video viewers (50%+)
- Social media engagers

Ad types:
- Reminder ads
- "Don't forget to book" messaging
- Urgency-driven offers

Social Launch Summary:
Port A Local's social media launch is designed to establish the platform as the trusted, go-to guide for Port Aransas while driving measurable revenue through direct service bookings.

We will leverage the Trust-to-Transaction strategy / approach, where we first build credibility through locally curated, high-value content, then create consistent user engagement by helping audiences plan their trips, and ultimately convert that attention into reservations and maintenance requests.

Port A Local's marketing launch is built to do more than generate awareness—it is designed to create a sustainable growth engine.

By combining authentic local storytelling, consistent high-value content, and strategically placed service offerings, the platform will establish itself as the most trusted source for Port Aransas recommendations, become a habitual planning resource for visitors
Convert that trust into consistent, measurable revenue through bookings and service requests

This approach ensures that every piece of content serves a purpose—to build trust, drive action, and support long-term growth for the platform.
